

Project Title
Mikroregion Hranicko
Purpose of the project
Mikroregion Hranicko is the voluntary association of the Hranicko community. It was founded in 2001 to increase the cultural, economic and social development of villages in the community.
Aims and Achievements
This voluntary association works towards the development of self-sufficiency and works to provide solutions for people with a range of difficulties, for example: Unemployment; Development and diversification of non-farmland; Cooperation and information exchange between villages; Support for tourism.
Duration
From 17 th december 2001 To - it is the voluntary association – unsettled
Total Budget Budget Source:
€ 571.569,26 (15 432 371) - membership dues
Context
Mikroregion Hranicko is an existing voluntary association of municipalities centered on the town of Hranice. The area covered by the Mikroregion is largely agricultural, covers over 30,000 hectares and has a population of about 34,000 inhabitants, 20,000 of them resident in Hranice and the rest in about 30 villages. The Secretariat of Mikroregion Hranicko, which provides the executive office for the association, was set up in 2005. It has been active in building up stakeholder networks in the area and supporting the delivery of the Regional Development Strategy (2007-2013): An agreement between local government and the private sector on the direction that development in the region should take. The Strategy sets out priorities on, for example, development of tourism, transport infrastructure, water supply, enterprise development, employment, services, housing, education, landscape and energy resources.
Description
Though this association, small villages can participate in projects such as INNOREF, Leader +. The cycling track and the Centrum of Services for Rural (this project support the active politic of employment through the OP Human Resources and Development). A lot of other activities and projects have been created as a result of the work of this voluntary association. It is a big opportunity to support the economic, social and cultural development of the region.
Contact Details
www.mikroregion-hranicko.cz